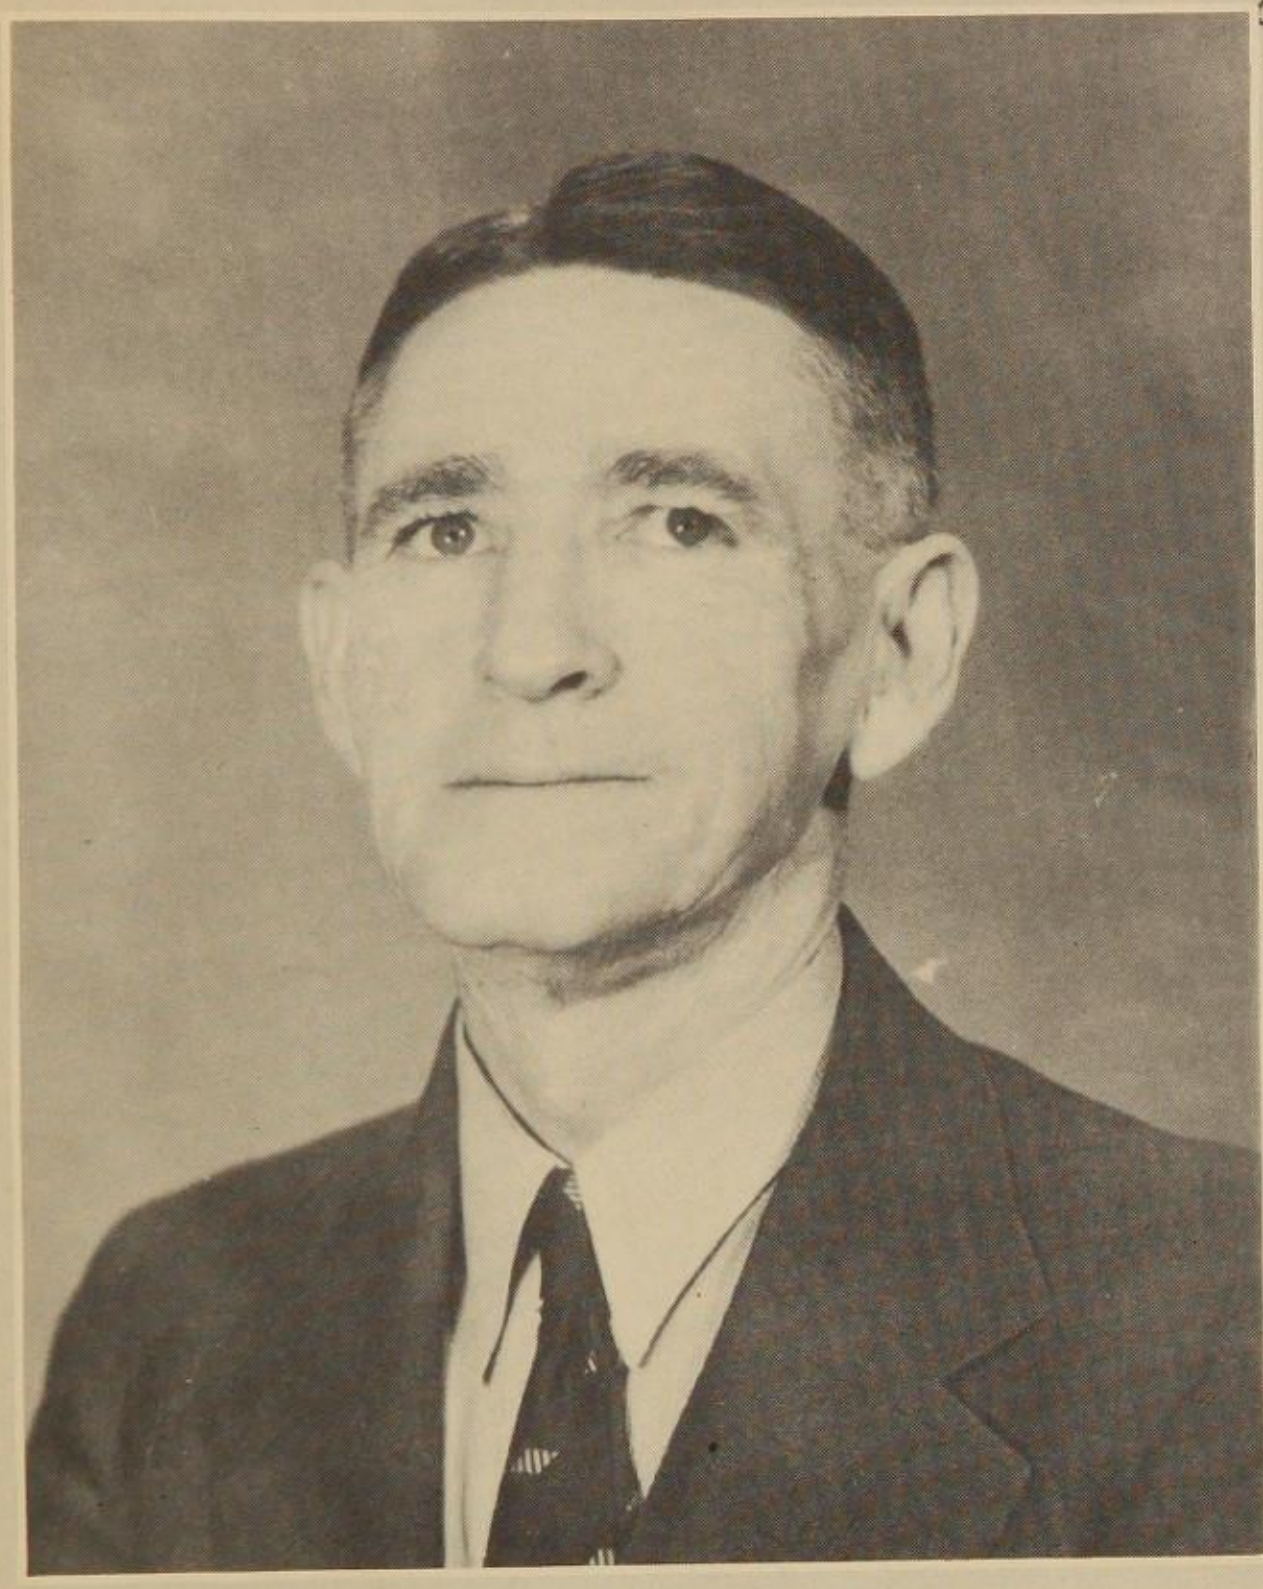
Foreword

In this, the second issue of The Monahanian, the staff has tried to preserve the history of the school year, 1937-38. We hope that in the future this book will recall many happy memories of this year.

Dedication



J.E. Middleton, Pres.

To the Board of Trustees for their tireless efforts to give us the most successful and enjoyable year of our school life, we dedicate this issue of The Monahanian.

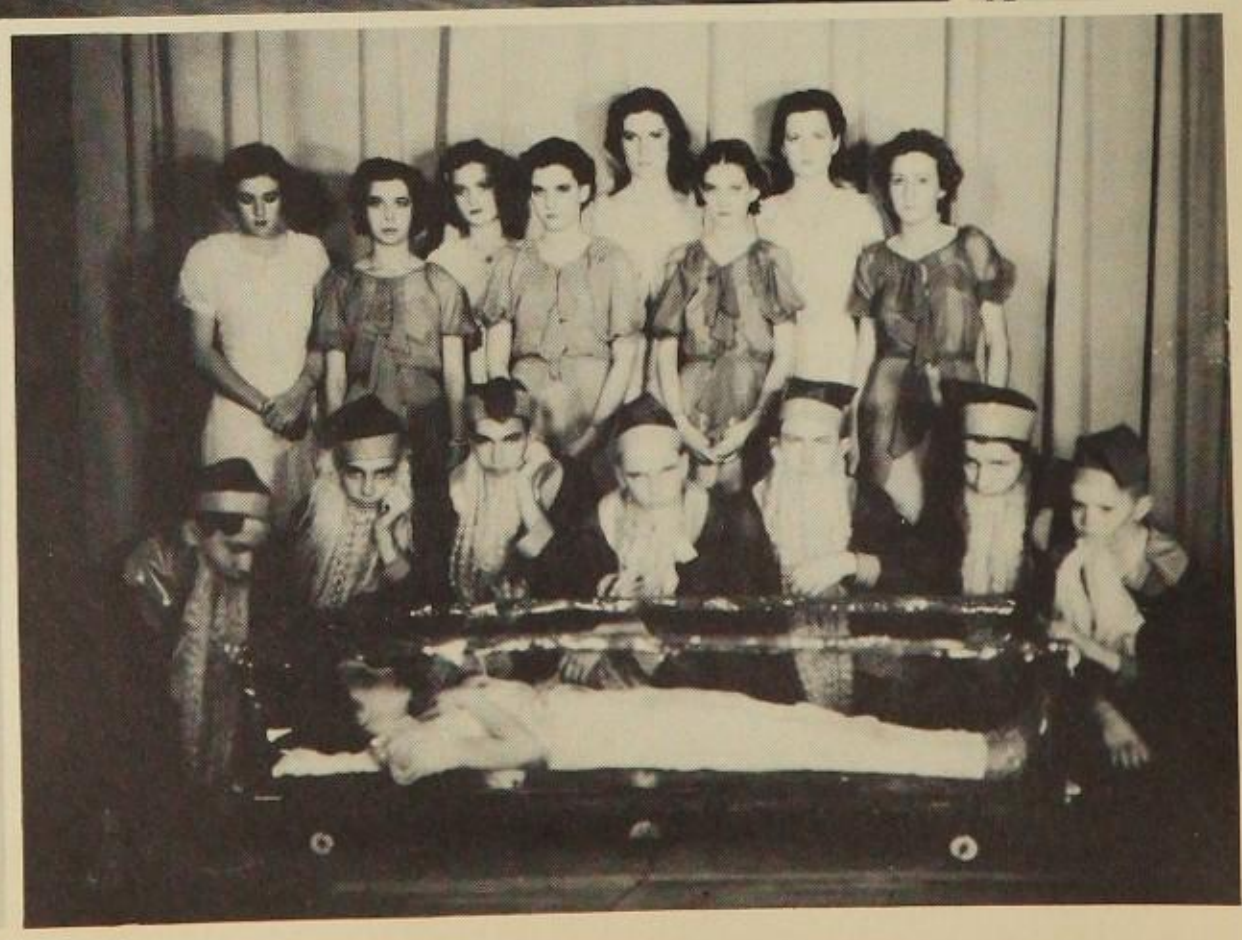
The Prince and Court Chamberlain at the Court of Queen Brangomar

"Be off or We'll lay hands on you"



"Let us watch over her all our lives long"

"Now for a head
of long, lovely
Curls — Pigtails?"

"We'll never leave you Snow White"

"We'll build a coffin all of shining crystals

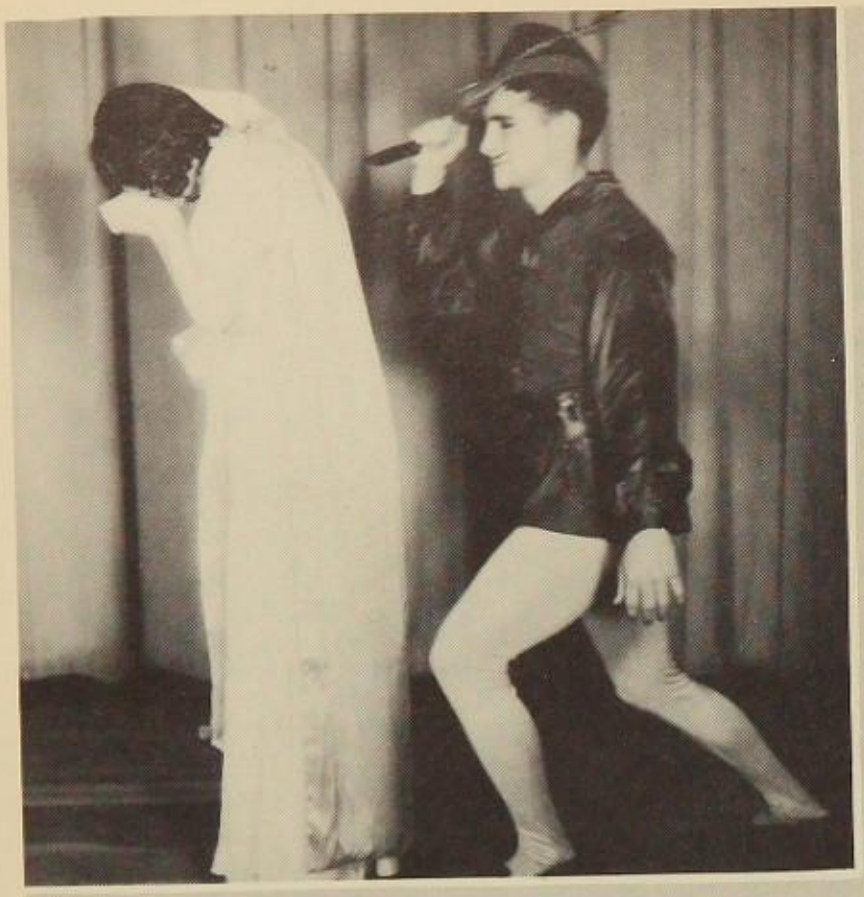
"Hair as black as ebony
Skin as white as snow
And lips as red as blood"



"Please Be Quick"

"Love and Homage to our little Queen"

"Just see-ee what a beautiful comb...."

"Mirror, Mirror, in my hand ....!"
